9780627003103	Mafangambiti	SEN	T.N. Maumela	J.L. van Schaik	For the boys of a Venda village, life revolves around the fortunes of Mafangambiti, a fighting bull whose victories are the talk of the countryside and whose rampages are destructive enough to bring his life into question. Every page in this closely observed study of a cattle-herding boyhood vibrantly evokes the African setting. And there is no mistaking the epic quality of the story and the heroic stature of its protagonist, Mafangambiti - rugged, fearless, challenging, indomitable. Inevitably he becomes a symbol of Africa's will to endure, to survive, to come back.
9781770094864	Mbiqi na Phele	INT	Lesley Geekie Dawe	Jacana	The Zebra and the Hyena tells the story of how quick-thinking Zebra tricks the hungry Hyena into not eating him for dinner, with very prickly results. This is a tale with striking illustrations made of paper collage.
9781868404070	Mirubo ya vhatukana	ABET	Silas Sitholimela	New Readers Project	Gondonabada was crippled, but he enjoyed visiting his aunt at Managa and playing on the mountain near the village with the herd boys.
